Institutions, such as hospitals, nursing homes, and rehabilitation centers, which regularly serve clients meeting the eligibility requirements on Page 2, can apply for free library service. Registered institutions may borrow books and equipment in order to:

1. Demonstrate the service to new library users.
2. Provide library service to eligible short-term residents. (Long-term residents should be registered for individual library accounts.)
3. Use in group activities with residents who cannot use standard print.

Public libraries may also borrow talking book equipment for demonstration purposes and can establish a deposit collection of large-print books.

In compliance with RCW 42.56.310, application information is confidential and will be used only in relation to your library service.

Certification of Eligibility

An administrator must sign below, certifying that the named institution serves persons who are unable to read or use standard printed material because of one or more of the reasons below and that the reading materials and equipment will be used by such persons only.

- Blindness. Visual acuity of 20/200 or less in the better eye with correcting lenses, or whose widest diameter of visual field subtends an angular distance no greater than 20 degrees.
- Visual Impairment. Inability to read standard printed materials without special aids or devices other than regular glasses.
- Physical Disability. Inability to turn pages or comfortably hold a book for extended periods of time as a result of physical limitations.
- Deafness and Blindness.
- Reading Disability. Reading disability, resulting from organic dysfunction, of sufficient severity to prevent reading of printed material in a normal manner.

Please note: Federal law (36 CFR 701.10) mandates that only doctors of medicine or osteopathy are allowed to certify cases of reading disability.

Please call or email the library at any time with special author, title, or subject requests, or if you have questions about your service. We look forward to serving you.

Choose one option for receiving books:

I wish to have the library select books for me. The library will send books from the categories you indicated above, or from requests you send us. Each book you send back will automatically be replaced. You may receive a call from the library to talk about the kinds of books you would like to receive.

I wish to receive only books I request. You will need to call us with lists of requests from our bimonthly catalog of new books or make requests through the online catalog in order for us to replace the books you return. No books will be sent if there are no requests in your file.
